The World Cup Competition 2014

I am delighted to welcome you all to the 58th World Cup Trout Fly Angling Championship on the mighty Lough Mask.

I would like on behalf of the committee, to wish visiting and local competitors and their families an enjoyable weekend. We hope that during your stay you will have the opportunity to enjoy the many attractions and facilities that the Ballinrobe area has to offer.

We would like to extend a sincere thank you to our loyal sponsors for their continued support and to our dedicated boatmen for their commitment again this year.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank my fellow committee members for their hard work throughout the year ensuring the continued success of this great event.

We also remember with fondness our photographer Tommy Eibrand, Tourmakeady, who passed away earlier this year. Ar dheis lámh Dé go raibh a anam uasal.

*Tight Lines,
Kevin Egan, Chairman.*

Which of these spools rattling around in your bag holds the belly-first intermediate line and which one holds the non-stretch fast-sink? Now you can tell at a glance, thanks to Greys new GX500 and GX700 reels with their brilliant innovation - the Line Identification System. Just clip the red push pegs into the coated rim and it's as good as printed in your memory.

Safety Statement - World Cup Trout Fly Angling Championship Health and Safety (Boating on Lough Mask)

Before Leaving:

- Check the weather, is there a small craft warning or are there gale force winds forecast?
- Choose the right clothing for the length of time afloat.
- Check that the boat is in good condition and has no water in it. Make sure that all seating/thwarts are fixed to the boat and at least 100mm or 4" below the gunnels.
- Have a good pair of oars and pins. Check that the engine is working properly.
- Always have enough fuel to cover all eventualities.
- Have a spare new spark plug, emergency started cord and tool kit.
